“THE KITCHEN” - NOVEMBER 13, 2011 at 7pm

Arnold Wesker's extraordinary play premiered at the Royal Court in 1959 and has since been performed in over 30 countries. THE KITCHEN puts the workplace center stage in a blackly funny and furious examination of life lived at breakneck speed, when work threatens to define who we are. The Kitchen features an ensemble of 30 people and is set in a kitchen, using real food and with actors actually cooking and preparing food on stage -- it's a tour de force spectacle.

“COLLABORATORS” - JANUARY 13, 2012 at 8pm

COLLABORATORS, a new play by John Hodge (screenwriter of Trainspotting, Shallow Grave, The Beach) directed by Nicholas Hytner. The play centers on an imaginary encounter between Joseph Stalin and the playwright Mikhail Bulgakov. Alex Jennings will play Bulgakov and Simon Russell Beale will play Stalin.

“THE COMEDY OF ERRORS” - MARCH 18, 2012 at 2pm

Dominic Cooke, director of the celebrated Royal Court Theatre in London, makes his National Theatre debut directing a new production of Shakespeare's delirious romp through mistaken identity, THE COMEDY OF ERRORS. Famed UK comedian and actor Lenny Henry performs the role of Antipholus of Syracuse.

More productions will be announced as information becomes available.

NATIONAL THEATRE LIVE performances are filmed live in high definition and broadcast via satellite to over 300 cinemas around the world, live in Europe and some US cities, and time-delayed in countries further afield. There are over 75 venues in the UK alongside venues in the USA, Canada, Australia, South Africa, Scandinavia and Europe. The performances at the National are nominated in advance to allow cameras greater freedom in the auditorium.
